Letter from Secretary Robeson.

THE STATEMENT OF THE INSTRUCTIONS GIVEN TO OUR FLEET IN SAN DOMINGO WATERS—BENNER'S CHARGE OF UNWARRANTABLE INTERFERENCE DISPROVED.

WASHINGTON, March 28.

Secretary Robeson has written a letter to Admiral Lee, in which he says: "I herewith inclose a copy of a letter which purports to have been addressed, on the 24th day of February last, by the officer commanding the Tennessee, to Benjamin F. Wade, Chairman of the Commission sent to San Domingo, on that vessel. I thought it right to correct the unfounded ideas therein contained through you, commandant of the fleet in those waters. You will perceive that in this letter the writer assumes, in effect, that if any person connected with the Commission was taken prisoner by the opponents of the Dominican Government, within their lines, he would be a spy and might, under the rules of civilized warfare, be treated as such, because the United States, in the opinion of the writer, through the orders of its Executive to naval vessels there, has chosen to take part in the internal conflicts of the Dominican Republic. This statement is unfounded in fact and inference. The United States is dealing with the regularly constituted Government of the Dominican Republic in a manner and purpose not inconsistent with international law, and though right of revolution against constituted government is, until it is actually overthrown, the legal representative of the nation in all its relations to the people, that right of revolution does not carry with it to the revolutionists, pending the contest, the right to treat the agents of other nations as enemies, when not in arms against them, while acting as they have an international right to act in accordance with the laws of the existing government; but neither the United States nor the Executive has chosen to take part or has taken part in the internal conflicts of the Dominican Republic.

The President of the United States has by the Constitution the right to make treaties, subject to the ratification of the Senate. The Congress of the United States in 1866 appropriated a considerable sum of money for the understood purpose of acquiring by lease or purchase part of the island of San Domingo, bay and peninsula of the same, considered most appropriate for the purposes a naval station; and the Republic of San Domingo itself, with its favorable position and natural resources, its friendly Government and people, seemed for the purpose of commerce and civilization, the most desirable for us of those fragments of our continent which lie across the gateways of domestic commerce, and shut up the entrance to our great inland sea. To initiate treaties is the constitutional right of the President, and he had the constitutional power to negotiate the treaty for the cession of Samana, and the annexation of the Dominican Republic, if, on proper consideration, he thought it right and for the interest of the country, whose interests are to an extent intrusted to his judgment. It was his constitutional right, if he did negotiate such treaties, to negotiate with the existing Government of that Republic—confessedly the Government both de facto and de jure. These treaties were inchoate and subject to be confirmed or defeated by the action of the Senate of the United States and the people of the Dominican Republic; but by such treaties and pending such final action, the United States acquired an interest in the thing negotiated, in which it could not be rightfully disputed by any other power. It was the plain duty of the Executive to protect, if need be, the integrity of this constitutionally acquired interest, so the subject of the negotiation might remain intact until final action by the ratifying Powers shall be properly had.

Under the treaty and by means of an appropriation by Congress for the purpose, we took possession of the bay and peninsula of Samana. This possession we still hold, and while our flag flies there we must protect it from interference with the interest which it represents. In carrying out the policy of the Government the United States has not fired a shot nor landed a man in a hostile attitude on the island of San Domingo, and neither has it interfered in the conflicts of the Dominican Republic, nor coerced any other Power. It simply announced to all people generally, and particularly to such as appeared in a threatening attitude, its determination to protect its negotiations until it has disposed of the interest it acquired in the Republic, from all attacks from without its boundaries, and all interference by any foreign Power, so that in the event of the treaties being ratified, there will be left the thing contracted for, no hostile possessions intervening to destroy our right of pre-emption. To do this is certainly not to make war or to take part in the conflicts of the country, nor to coerce nor attempt to coerce my Power. It is but a simple performance of duty to Congress and to the nation in preparation in the existing condition of what we constitutionally entered into negotiations constitutionally to acquire. Under orders of the Executive it is part of the duty of those ships of your fleet, which are at any time cruising in the waters of San Domingo, to maintain this status against every Power, and while we would not yield the right to interfere with it to the most powerful Government, we cannot concede that right even to the weakest.

(Signed) GEO. M. ROBESON,
Secretary of the Navy.

"Jim Bludso."

AN ENGLISH CRITICISM.

The London Spectator gives a very favorable notice of Mr. Hay's poem, "Jim Bludso," which has been variously criticised in this country, but has nevertheless secured a strong hold upon the popular favor. The following is the notice of the Spectator:

"Only the other day we quoted a Californian ballad full of the true Yankee familiarity and humor, yet full of life, full of the spirit of the situation; and here is another, on a heroic though reprobate engine-driver of a Mississippi steamboat, whose conscience does not prevent him from endangering, nay, rather compels him to endanger, the lives of all his passengers by racing the other steamboats, but does compel him to sacrifice his own life to save his passengers when the fire comes. What can be more perfectly adapted to breathe out the very essence of the situation, with all its peculiar familiarity of religious feeling, and yet true religious feeling, and its unscrupulous sense of duty than the following? Extract from Jim Bludso.] The half impudent description of Jim Bludso dead, as having "got out of the habit of living like you and me,"—the easy-going, slip-shod description of Jim Bludso's mode of keeping faith as "passing in his checks,"—and the genuine faith of the last verse, are all touches which go beyond the description of a great feat or action, into a description of a character at least as complete in its way as Mr. Browning's of Herve Riel. Surely the pleasures of this kind which the world has are much fewer than they need be. True, it is not so easy to find an action, homely or otherwise, with which any poet's mind is so precise in sympathy that he can fit it to its true rhyme and true style; but we suspect that poets neglect these simple efforts of their craft too much. They know that the ballad fails, in type, below the highest efforts of which they are capable, as the spirit of action falls below the spirit of life; and they forget that in their less elevated moods they might scatter far and wide the truest and vividest of simple pleasures, by taking up more such homely subjects in the spirit of a sympathetic translator who only aims at translating deeds into words."

EASTERN DATES TO APRIL 7.

EUROPE.

No Communication with Paris.

LONDON, April 6.—Direct telegraphic communication with Paris has ceased. The insurgents have cut the wires. The city is again isolated.

Negotiations with the Insurgents.

VERSAILLES, April 6.—It is reported that Thiers, instead of following up advantages gained, has commenced negotiations with the Commune and offered to concede many demands and to exempt the leaders from punishment. The report causes intense excitement among conservative Deputies.

A Notice from Bismarck.

LONDON, April 6.—Bismarck informs Thiers that he may occupy Paris with 150,000 men if necessary, and that the present indecisive policy must end and the insurrection be suppressed or the Germans will enter the capital.

Other Foreign Items.

VIENNA, April 6.—The Lower House ratifies the American Consular treaty.

LONDON, April 6.—The Princess of Wales gave birth to a boy to-day.

Wounded Men at Versailles.

HAVRE, April 6.—A train with 150 wounded soldiers came in to-day from Versailles, and other arrivals are expected. The Versailles government has been asked for ambulances.

Russia Goes into the Black Sea.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 6.—The official journal publishes the ratification by the Turks of the Russian Convention, abrogating the Euxine limitation.

London Dispatches.

LONDON, April 6.—The weekly returns of the Bank of England show an increase of £33,000 bullion since the last report.

A large French war ship is ashore on Goodwin Sands. It is supposed to be full of troops. Assistance has been sent.

The Insurgents forced Back.

VERSAILLES, April 6.—The insurgents have been dislodged from the bridge of Neuilly. A fierce cannonade is kept up between Chatillon and the forts of Issy and Vanves. It is apparently the purpose of the commander of the Versailles army to completely invest the Capital. His lines are already established on the left bank of the Seine. Bagneux has been occupied. It is expected the occupation of Issy and Choisy le Roi will soon follow. The Nationals have been ordered to retire behind the forts and remain on the defensive. Bergeret claims that the fire from the forts dislodged the Government troops from their advanced position. The Commune is making requisitions on shops for arms and ammunition. The army of Versailles is waiting for heavy artillery to attack Fort Issy. There was a violent cannonade last night and this morning in the direction of Courbevoie and Chatillon.

Fearful Reports from Paris.

BRUSSELS, April 6.—The nun who escaped from Paris has arrived and reports that the churches were sacked, priests insulted, arrested and maltreated, and convents entered at night and searched. A rumor prevailed before she left that twenty Jesuits had been shot. Assy succeeded in escaping from Paris after he had been hunted from place to place by the Communists.

Retaliation of the Factions.

PARIS, April 6—via London, April 7.—The commune decrees the arrest of all persons who are accused of complicity with the Versailles authorities, and a jury of investigation will decide who shall be detained as hostages. Every execution of a National prisoner and any civil partisans of the commune by the Versailles officers, will be immediately followed by the execution of treble the number of hostages.

Clorsets reports to the commune that the organization of the National Guard will give them one hundred thousand picked men. He adds, that at the present moment the policy of the patriots is to maintain an attitude of defense.

Measures of the Insurgents.

LONDON, April 7—6 A. M.—Special dispatches to the Daily News report that all the officers and professors of the College of the Jesuits in Paris have been arrested by the communists.

Grousset is appointed by the insurgents as a delegate.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs has sent out a circular addressed to the representatives of France abroad, notifying them of the election and organization of the commune deputation.

Parisian merchants have had a consultation with President Thiers.

A bill has been introduced into the Assembly to accelerate the action of courts martial.

A Terrible Scene.

NEW YORK, April 7—A special cablegram from Paris says that at the funeral of the killed, yesterday evening, an extraordinary scene occurred. There were three huge hearses, with black velvet palls, each decorated with seventy-six red flags, containing the dead. Following them were 8,000 National Guards, and double that number of citizens. Women were marching by hundreds past and along the boulevards, at a solemn pace. Many members of the Commune joined the procession. As they arrived at Pere La Chaise, each hearse contained 33 coffins, and 23 other hearses, already in the cemetery, were filled with dead from the various hospitals. It was an awful scene. There was one huge grave for all. The bodies were lowered one at a time amidst the shrieks of women and the shouts of men for vengeance on the assassins at Versailles. Pere La Chaise was one mass of people swaying with passion and screaming "Vive la Republique," "Vive la Commune." The loss of the Communists created grief in the city, mixed with bitter animosity.

LONDON, April 7.—The Austrian Admiral Tegethoff, victor of Lissa, is dead.

The peace plenipotentiaries of France and Germany have another meeting at Brussels on Saturday.

WASHINGTON CITY.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—In the House the Ku-Klux bill was amended by striking out the proviso authorizing the President to direct voluntary enlistment of any militia of the United States in lieu of all or any part of the authorized troops to be employed. Several minor amendments were then made and the bill passed—yeas, 118; nays, 91.

Kendall, of Nevada, offered a resolution instructing the Judiciary Committee when appointed to inquire what legislation is necessary to prevent damage to the public lands of the United States by use of the waters of Lake Tahoe by a California corporation.

The Treasury Department is endeavoring to devise some means whereby foreign goods may be imported directly into San Domingo.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—The Senate proceeded to discuss the resolutions reported from the Committee on Privileges and Elections, admitting to seats Goldthwaite of Alabama, and Blodgett of Georgia. The matter was finally laid aside, and the Senate took up the concurrent resolution for the joint special committee to investigate the affairs of the South. Frelinghuysen addressed the Senate at length, eulogizing the reconstruction policy of Congress as most wise and benedcent, and inspired by mercy and clemency without a parallel. He reviewed the affairs of the South and urged the immediate necessity of remedial legislation.

Pratt followed in a general review of the social and political condition of the South, and discussed the constitutional power of Congress under the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Amendments to arrest and punish the perpetrators of outrages.

In the House Shellabarger gave notice that he should at half-past two to-day ask the House for a second demand for the previous question on the pending bill, without cutting off the amendments.

Hays, of Illinois, hoped there would be no final adjournment until the apportionment bill could be acted upon, so that the Western States might have their increase of representation.

Eldridge opposed the bill, and characterized it as a declaration of war while the people are crying for peace.

Voorhees, of Indiana, said the people everywhere but in Washington were at peace. The excitement was all here. He declared that nine-tenths of the clamor about outrages was false and raised for political purposes.

Ambler, of Ohio, moved to strike out from the bill the power given to the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus. Lost—yeas, 101; nays, 106.

Dawes moved to reconsider the vote and to table the motion to reconsider. Agreed to—yeas, 113; nays, 91.

Holman moved to strike out the third section of the bill; disagreed to.

Several minor amendments were made to the bill, which was then passed: yeas, 118; nays, 91.

The negative vote was as follows: Acton, Adams, Archer, Beck, Bell, Biggs, Bird, Blanton, Bright, Brooks (N. Y.), Caldwell, Campbell, Carroll, Comings, Cox, Crebs, Critcher, Crossland, Davis, Dix, Dubois, Duke, Eldridge, Ely, Forker, Foster, Garrett, Getz, Holladay, Griffith, Haldeman, Handley, Hanks, Harper, Harris (Va.), Hanford, Hibbard, Holman, Kerr, King, Kenzell, Lamison, Leach, Lewis, Monson, Marshall, McClellan, McCormick, McHenry, McIntyre, McKenny, McNeely, Mitchell F., Morgan, Niblack, Parker (N. H.), Perry (N. Y.), Potter, Randall, Rice (Ill.), Rice (Kansas), Ritchie, Robins, Robinson, Rogers, Roosevelt, Sherwood, Slater, Slocum, Terry, Van Trump, Vaughan, Voorhees, Waddell, Warren, Wells, Whithorn, Williams (N. Y.), Winchester, Wierd, and Young.

Political and General.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—The prospects now are that an adjournment can be reached Saturday evening next week.

The House Ku Klux bill will probably be referred by the Senate to the Committee on Judiciary to day, by whom it will be reported back by next Monday at farthest, when after two or three days' debate the Republican Senators will agree to sit until a vote is taken. It is not believed the bill will be amended in the Senate in any important respect.

It is reported as coming from members of the High Commission on the part of the United States that they have little hope of being able to present a treaty which will be acceptable to the Senate. It seems to be conceded by the best informed persons in high official positions that should Congress adjourn before the treaty is presented the Senate will be convened in extraordinary session, and that at least two weeks will be consumed in discussing the treaty.

The President and San Domingo.

CHICAGO, April 7.—The Tribune's Washington special says the talk of the day has been over the President's message and the report of the San Domingo Commissioners, the former receiving the most attention. The opinion is universal that the question of annexation need cause no more division in the party, and that the President has strengthened himself more by this message than any document he has signed since his inauguration. There is a feeling of deep satisfaction over the situation of affairs brought about by the President's course in turning the whole matter over to the Senate and the people. There will probably be no discussion in the Senate further than a speech of Morrill, of Vermont, which will be very strong and exhaustive in its opposition to annexation.

The Commissioners accidentally omitted one point from their report which is to the fact that all public lands not granted to individuals or companies are pledged to meet irregular debts and claims which may be found to be valid. This statement is made by the request of one of the Commissioners.

It is not believed the matter will come up for debate in the House unless the question of appropriation for back rent for Samana is presented.

EASTERN STATES.

Connecticut Election.

HARTFORD, April 6.—The Post announces the election of the entire Republican ticket with exception of Governor.

HARTFORD, April 6.—Returns from the large towns show that English ran ahead of the ticket and Jewell behind, probably on account of the capital question. The Republican ticket, except for Governor, probably has more than one hundred majority.

Republican Victory in Rhode Island.

PROVIDENCE, April 6.—Complete returns of the State election announce a Republican victory. Padelsford (Rep.) is elected Governor. The Senate stands 26 Republicans to 9 Democrats; the House 57 Republicans to 13 Democrats.

Political Disabilities.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Gen. Butler has prepared an amnesty bill which will relieve nearly all from political disabilities. Two or three classes only will be excepted. The bill will probably be introduced on Monday next.

New York Politics.

NEW YORK, April 6.—At a meeting of the Union Republican General Committee, this evening, Horace Greeley presiding, resolutions were adopted opposing the action of the State Committee in attempting to reorganize the Republican party in this city as approving of Sumner's position and opposing San Domingo annexation.

Murders by the Ku Klux.

NEW YORK, April 7.—The Tribune's Washington special says a telegram received Senator Osborne of Florida announces the assassination last Monday in Marianna, Jackson county, of J. Q. Dickinson, Clerk of the Florida State Court, the Deputy U. S. Marshal, and the last leading Republican in Jackson county. More than sixty murders have occurred in Jackson county within the past two years. All the victims were Republicans, and several of them prominent men. The actual Republican majority in Jackson county is 800, but in November last through intimidation it was reduced to 14.

Fire at Albany.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 7.—One of the most extensive conflagrations that ever occurred in this city, took place this morning. The fire broke out in the large printing house of Weed, Parson & Co., Columbia street, consuming that building and nearly the entire block of buildings on Broadway between Columbia and Van Tromp streets, on the west side. The total loss will reach $500,000.

THE NEW HAMPSHIRE ELECTION—THE CAUSE OF THE REPUBLICAN DEFEAT.—Ex-Governor Harriman, of New Hampshire, now United States Naval Officer at Boston, has addressed the following letter to Senator Morton, relative to the New Hampshire election:

BOSTON, MASS., March 17, 1871.

HON. O. P. MORTON—My Dear Sir—We have suffered a humiliating defeat in New Hampshire, but we barely escaped a similar result last year. The result would have been the same last year had we not made a united, hearty effort to prevent it. I did my duty this year. Wish I could say the same of all. Our troubles are mostly local. The San Domingo question did us little or no damage. Some of our acknowledged leaders have been fighting against us for years; others have, through indifference, fanned the result we see to-day. We have a dirty railroad quarrel. Last June a very extreme and unpopular liquor law was passed. But I will not particularize. We mean to redeem the State, and I believe we shall as soon as the next Presidential election. If possible, protect the loyalists of the South before your adjournment. Yours, truly,

WALTER HARRIMAN.

There is evidently a rivalry among the Western cities. The Cincinnati Gazette calls attention to the proximity of St. Louis to the line of hurricanes; whereupon the Chicago Tribune says that St. Louis may well retort that Cincinnati is so far out of the usual route of travel that even a hurricane could not afford to go out of its way to visit that city.

Since the Pope's loss of temporal power he is reported to have been offered presents and contributions from all sources of the value of several millions of dollars, nearly all of which he has declined.

OREGON.

The Roseburg Ensign has closed its fourth volume. It will soon be enlarged and otherwise improved.

The closing exercises of the examination for the winter term at Wallamet University, took place on Thursday.

The Statesman says: The Motes' school is progressing wonderfully under the supervision of Prof. Smith, who is capable of performing his duties well.

A contract has been closed with the Penitentiary authorities, by Mr. Myers, for 500,000 brick to be used in constructing the buildings for the manufacture of agricultural machinery at Salem.

The steamboat Calliope has made her way up the Santiam to Lebanon. The people of that town gave the captain and crew a grand reception and supper. The boat, it is said, will now make regular trips to that place.

The Albany Democrat says that the Wallamet Valley & Cascade Mountain Road Company are organizing a party of men to explore the road for the spring travel over the mountains to Eastern Oregon. The party will leave Albany on the 17th inst.

The Daily Oregonian.

SATURDAY MORNING, APRIL 8, 1871.

Impossible Things

Mr. Theodore Tilton is one of the few erratic Republicans who are dissatisfied with the Republican party, and think it has little to live for, since a change has been made in the composition of one of the committees of the Senate. So in the last issue of the Gold n Age, he says.

Republican as we are—yes, radical among radicals—we believe that the greatest blessing that could befall the nation in 1872, would be to see the Democratic party ratify the arbitrament of the war, accept the plan of reconstruction, carry out the 14th and 15th amendments, forget that the negro is black, to remember that he is a citizen, declare itself against the rebel debt, and then, on the basis of universal amnesty, including the abrogation of all political disabilities, take victorious possession of a Government which President Grant has failed to administer to the satisfaction of the country.

The first and last parts of this paragraph well suit each other in downright simplicity, not to say ludicrous absurdity. Such utterances come from those who, however original their ideas or brilliant their imagination, have no practical views of affairs, but are devoted to hobbies which they ride for a time with vigorous industry and then abandon them for other singular or eccentric excursions.

Every practical observer must laugh at the idea that the Democratic party could "ratify the arbitrament of the war," "forget that the negro is black," accept reconstruction and the amendments, and take the course generally which the editor of the Golden Age would be happy to see that party enter upon. The thing is so absolutely impossible that the suggestion of it is nothing less than ludicrous. The black man will change his skin sooner than the Democratic party so completely changes its character. Political parties are the result of profound tendencies in human nature. The Democratic party can no more transform itself in the manner which Mr. Tilton hopes for, than men can change the whole conditions of their existence. That party cannot now and never can place itself on such a platform as Mr. Tilton would give it. Should it seriously attempt to do that, it would break up and would be the Democratic party no longer.

President Grant, it is said, has failed to administer the government to the satisfaction of the country. When was this discovery made? A short time since when a change was effected in one of the Senate committees. What reason is there for such a judgment upon the P. ident? None, whatever, except that the change in the committee is not to the liking of certain persons. But the great body of the Republicans do not view affairs in that light. Men of sound judgment and practical views know that the Republican party, only, can be relied on to "justify the arbitrament of the war," and sustain its results. And they know, farther, that to pull President Grant down at this time would be to give the Democratic party a victory, and reverse all the results of the war. Republicans who are dissatisfied can take their choice. They can deal fairly with President Grant, give him their support, and thus save ... doubt, the objects which Mr. Tilton ... are so desirable, or they can help the Democratic party into power and enable that organization to pull down everything; and for what reason? Simply because a Senate Committee is not composed exactly as they would have it. This would be about as sensible as to look to the Democratic party to "justify the arbitrament of the war," to uphold reconstruction and to secure the ... man in his rights.

The Reason of it.

...sition against the Ku-Klux is taking ... shape at Washington. The principal ... reason for continuing the present session ... Congress is the necessity that has been ... for the enactment of measures to protect ... them loyalists and give a check to Ku ... violence. A bill designed to accomplish ... objects has passed the House. Democrats oppose it at every stage. Their action is ... inconsistent. In one breath they vehemently deny that any outrages are perpetrated, or that any reason exists for Congressional action. In the next they assert that the enforcement of such a law will incite disorder and bloodshed. Now of course if there are no Ku Klux, and if the reported outrages are all imaginary, there will be no need of enforcing the law, and it will amount to nothing whatever except to fill a few pages of the statute book. Such a law can be a terror only to evil doers. It can hurt no-... in communities where order and quiet prevail. Why, then, do Democrats oppose it? Simply for party reasons. The Ku-Klux is a society that operates in their interest. Through it they hope to overawe and intimidate the Republican sentiment of the South and secure the whole electoral vote of that section in 1872 for the Democratic party. As much violence and murder as may be necessary to accomplish this object they are willing to see perpetrated. Hence they do not ... the Ku Klux interfered with. The ob... of organizing was expressed recently in ... by Gen. Kershaw of South Carolina, formerly a Major General in the rebel ... who warned the Governor of that ... officials that Northern "carpet-baggers" and Southern "scallawags" ... the State and the Government ... usurped to Southern gentlemen." This explains why the Democratic party in the North sympathizes with the Ku Klux, of whom Gen. Kershaw is a leader.

From the time when there went out a decree from Cæsar Augustus that all the world should be taxed, to the present day, the question of taxation has been discussed from every possible standpoint, and every conceivable plan has been suggested to obtain the requisite amount to sustain the administration of public affairs. Bacon was no doubt right, when he said that "no people overcharged with tribute is fit for empire," but on the other hand there are sad illustrations in history of the fate of nations which have attempted to avoid taxation. The fall of Poland is attributed largely to the false ideas which prevailed upon this subject. "Their idea of freedom," says Allison, "was absence from all control, and above all, liberation from all taxes." In this country the aim of classes, trades and communities appears to-day largely to be made up of projects and schemes, by which the burden of taxation shall be removed from their shoulders. But while it is the duty of the people to scan closely the action of all who have the power intrusted to them of levying taxes, we cannot, during the present generation, if ever, hope for a return to those days when our direct taxes were nominal, and indirect taxation was not heavy.

Latest news from Connecticut show that the Republicans failed to elect their candidate for Governor, but carried the balance of their ticket. It seems probable that the choice of Governor will devolve on the Legislature, as in New Hampshire. If so, Jewell (Rep.) will be elected. On the vote for Congressmen the Republicans have about 1,600 majority in the State, and as they have a large majority in each branch of the Legislature they have won a substantial victory. A local question, it is stated, caused their candidate for Governor to fall behind. The returns from Rhode Island show a sweeping Republican triumph.

A late work on the national finances and property of France gives an insight into the process whereby the Roman Catholic Church has, in spite of the confiscation of the First Revolution, managed to acquire vast wealth and corresponding influence. The States General of 1789 pronounced the existence of church property incompatible with the ideas of modern society. In 1817 it was decreed that only certain religious foundations having legal recognition should be capable of holding property. When still Prince-President, Louis NAPOLEON made a bid for the support of the Church by removing all existing barriers to its acquisition of money and real estate. The consequence is, that the latest estimate which has been made of the wealth of religious societies in France puts it down at a total of upward of one hundred millions of dollars. This was almost entirely the product of fifteen years of the second Empire.

The official returns of the census of the New England States show that Maine has 577,644 native and 48,807 foreign inhabitants, New Hampshire has 288,694 natives and 29,606 foreigners; Vermont has 283,559 natives and 46,993 foreigners, Massachusetts has 354,343 foreign born, and 1,104,008 native population; Connecticut has 424,000 natives and 113,639 foreigners; Rhode Island 161,972 natives and 55,384 foreigners. Maine has 1,597 person of color and 29 Indians; New Hampshire, 590 colored and 14 Indians; Vermont, 921 colored and 11 Indians; Massachusetts, 13,906 colored and 162 Indians; Connecticut, 9,668 colored and 235 Indians; Rhode Island, 4,960 colored and 138 Indians. Maine has 1 Chinaman, and Massachusetts 93 Chinamen and 4 Japanese.

A Washington dispatch of the 28th March, states that Secretary Boutwell, some days before, received bids from leading European financiers for $200,000,000 of the new loan, payable in gold. This amount has since been largely increased, and the Secretary will receive it in a few days. It is stated that he expects to be able before December next, to dispose of $900,000,000 of the new loan, and to bring the country nearly, if not altogether, up to specie payments by that time.

On the 28th March, Senator Howe of Wisconsin spoke in opposition to Senator Sumner on the San Domingo question. He made a general argument against Sumner's assumptions and accusations, and in conclusion said that the mission of the Republican party was not ended, and he would beseech the man who, Judas-like, would stab the party to which he professed to belong in the back, to take up his position as its common enemy.

In order to figure out a Democratic victory in Connecticut the Oregon City Enterprise states that Starkweather, one of the Congressmen elect, is a Democrat. We suppose it does not know that Starkweather has served for several terms in Congress, and that he is a most reliable Republican.

Is the Ku Klux Klan a myth? Read the news of its work in Florida, reported in the dispatches to-day.

The Mines of Baker County.

From the Baker City Democrat we take the following:

In the spring of 1870, Uriah Perry, an old Californian, who had had much experience in ditches, examined the Shasta mines, and becoming convinced that the placers were both rich and extensive, he enlisted Mr. J. H. Johnson in the project of enlarging the Carter & Packwood Ditch. Mr. Johnson went back to Chicago and succeeded in inducing Mr. Buford, of Rock Island, to come out and examine the country; and the result was that Mr. Buford purchased nearly the entire stock and control of the Carter and Burnt River Ditch Company's property, including large tracts of mining land. The Carter & Packwood Ditch was designed to convey sufficient water to furnish about two thousand inches of water for ten hours; but Mr. Buford is reconstructing the ditch—making it eight feet at the top and three feet at the bottom, and able to convey a current of water three feet deep. Mr. Johnson, Superintendent of the Company, has pushed the work forward in fair and foul weather, from October, 1870, to January, 1871. This company is known as the "Malheur and Burnt River Consolidated Ditch and Mining Company." Capital stock $1,000,000. This company now own all the available and living water for mining purposes in the following districts: Eldorado, Malheur, Amelia City, Ryal Valley District, Clark's Creek and Burnt River Slope—mining districts which together form a district about 60 miles long by 10 to 20 wide.

The gold dust in Eldorado, Malheur, Amelia, Clark's Creek and Burnt River Slope is worth from $16 to $18 per ounce.

As far as Burnt River has been tried, on the bars and hills, on and near the river, it yields from one to fifty dollars per day to the man with a rocker.

Some eight or ten weeks ago we gave a short account of the Eldorado Ditch and Placer Mining Company. Their capital stock is $500,000; W. P. Richmond, President; Hiram Mallenny, Secretary, and N. W. Donnell, Superintendent. They intend to construct one of more large ditches from Blue Canyon—just above the Express Ranch—and convey the water down over the bars and foot-hills a distance of from fifteen to forty miles.

The mines in Mormon Basin are very rich—one thousand buckets of dirt having yielded $1,000 in rocking. The gold also is very pure and free from alloy. The great want of the miners is—water.

In 1864 W. H Packwood hired a party of men and sent them to prospect the Willow Creek side of the mountain. They found gold in the flats, hills and gulches in remunerative quantities.

The yearly product of the gold mines of Baker county is estimated at $1,000,000 per annum for the last seven years, with a population averaging about 1,500. The mining season has not averaged three months a year. With the water which the ditches in process of construction will furnish when completed our mining population and gold product will be from three to five times greater.

WASHINGTON SCANDAL MONGERS.—No better proof of the honesty and purity of Grant's administration is needed than the single fact, developed at length in a Washington letter to the Worcester (Mass.) Spy, that all the Washington special correspondents are, almost without exception, personally hostile. Most of these chaps are of the worst specimens of the Bohemian order of newspaper adventurers—soldiers of fortune who fight under any banner for pay—mere manufacturers of sensational scandal. Here for instance is the Spy correspondent's portrait of two of the most disreputable of the class:

Look over the list with me a moment. Take the correspondents, of whom by common consent or perhaps because their respective journals deem their services valuable enough to pay for at the rate of $5,000 per annum, Geo. Alfred Townsend and Don Piatt are recognized as first. The Chicago Tribune and Cincinnati Commercial are notoriously anti-administration, but their Washington correspondents are even bitterer than the editors thereof. These gentlemen are to correspondents as a class what the nation is to the usual run of editors—skillful makers of unbelief in everybody's honesty of purpose, integrity and ability. They are pickers-to-pieces of other men's reputations. They have inculcated so pervading a conviction of public immorality in all departments of affairs, as to reduce their utterances in that direction to a system, and their attacks to a fine art.

PACIFIC COAST DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

CALIFORNIA.

From San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—It has cleared up cold again, with northwester blowing hard as ever.

The crowd in attendance on the Fair Crittenden murder trial is great as ever all day, though nothing but submitting letters to court and filing them preparatory to formally entering them as evidence was going on. The number of letters and memoranda so offered up to adjournment this evening is nearly 130. A few more will be offered to-morrow. The case will not go to the jury before the middle of next week. Officer M. Cramara, whose business it is to keep the doorway to the court room from being wholly blocked up, has been arrested on charge of assault and battery on a spectator whom he forcibly removed.

Nathaniel McAffee, born in 1793, very deaf and feeble, convicted of manslaughter in Monterey county and sentenced to three years in the penitentiary, arrived here this evening en route for San Quentin.

Mott Reddington has been arrested on several charges of taking in unsuspicious countrymen at an outlying game of faro. His place has been known as "Headquarters;" he has carried on a very one sided hogging game.

The State Harbor Commissioners have determined to enforce the claim of the State, to the exclusion of wharfage and dockage fees, and have directed the attorney for the Board of Commerce to bring suit against the bark Evelyn Wood for dockage, and notified the Captains of the ships Derby and Sovereign of the Seas, now lying at Cowell's wharf, that they will be held liable for the full amount of fees, payable to the owners or claimants of the wharf, not being valid against the State.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—A five hundred point French carom three ball game between Cyrille Dion and Deery, at Platt's Hall, was witnessed by only a moderate audience. Under the rule all shots allowed only one point counts for each shot. Big runs made to 9:30 this evening: Dion—1st inning, 26, 9th, 38; 12th, 31; 21st, 31; Deery—7th inning, 14; 17th, 42. First call 9th inning, Dion 105, Deery 37; second call 21st inning, Dion 208, Deery 90. The game will probably be through by half past 11 o'clock. On the 23 inning Dion scored 242. The game stood Dion 297, Deery 121. Betting two to one on Dion.

NEVADA.

HAMILTON, April 7.—Considerable excitement prevailed here yesterday over the killing of James Mack by Gates. A meeting of the citizens was held last evening to consider whether to take the case out of the courts and hang Gates or allow the law to take its course. After much discussion the meeting adjourned without taking any decisive action. Every precaution has been taken by the Sheriff to resist a forcible removal of the prisoner.

FOREIGN NOTES.

Queen Victoria will travel next summer on the Rhine and in Switzerland.

Two Parisian publishing houses are litigating about the right to issue a complete edition of Alexander Dumas' works.

Autograph letters written by the ex-Empress Eugenie, the Princess Mathilde, and other distinguished personages of the Second Empire, may be bought in Paris for one and two francs.

The Crown Princess, Victoria, of Germany, intends to found an order, the cross of which is to be bestowed upon all women who distinguish themselves by acts of devotion, courage and charity.

General Von Roon, the famous Prussian Minister of War, has tendered his resignation on account of ill health, and Gen. Von Podbielski, now Quartermaster-General of the Prussian army will be his successor.

The native tribes of Algeria have become so troublesome that most of the French colonists in that country have been obliged to flee to the towns. Many of them have declared their intention to return to France.

Old Vezzicapo, the Neapolitan executioner who beheaded so many persons during the bloody reign of the King Bombs, died the other day at Sorrento in his seventy-eighth year. During his long and gloomy career he executed upward of a hundred and fifty persons.

A number of merchants in Havre having pledged themselves not to employ any more German clerks, their former correspondents in Hamburg and Bremen have notified them that they will henceforth transfer their trade from Havre to Antwerp.

The Governor General of Poland has protested against the ukase abolishing flogging in the Polish police courts. Without that penalty constantly hanging over the heads of the Poles, says the Governor, the police will not be able to keep the rebellious spirit of the Poles in check.

Louis Napoleon had large photographic views taken of the apartments at Wilhelmshohe formerly occupied by King Jerome, of Westphalia. The ex-Emperor inquired if any relics of Jerome's reign were still preserved at Wilhelmshohe, but he was answered that everything of that kind had been destroyed in 1814 by order of the Elector, Jerome's successor.

learn that certain parties were yesterday ... lating a subscription paper for the purpose ... raising funds with which to conduct legal proceedings to enjoin the Willamette Valley Railroad Company from constructing a railroad ... Fourth street in this city. A gentleman ... along time to learn all the tricks to which some men can turn their hands. We reckon if there is any one thing which the people of Portland have longed for, prayed for, worked for and ... for, it is a railroad on the west side of the river, and terminating within the limits of the city. We remember that when Ben Holladay ... mined to make the depot of the O. & C. ... at East Portland, there was universal rejoicing ... of the same parties who ... to prevent a railroad from being ... on Front street, were the ... the whole lot about the wrong ... by depositing it of a railroad depot within ... corporate limits. FRIDAY MORNING, APRIL 8, 1871.

...ERIES OF THE WEST SIDE RAILROAD.—We ...ard certain parties were yesterday circu...ing a subscription paper for the purpose of ...ising funds with which to conduct legal pro...edings to enjoin the Willamette Valley Rail...road Company from constructing a railroad on ...eet in this city. A man must needs live ...ong time to learn all the tricks to which some ...en will resort in their hands. We reckon if there is ...e thing which the people of Portland have ...ayed for, prayed for, worked for and howled ...r, it is a railroad on the west side of the river ...d running within the limits of this city. ...ember that when Ben Holladay deter...ined to make the depot of the O. & O. Railroad ...Portland, there was universal regret, and ...the same parties who are now ...ing to prevent a railroad from being con...ucted on ...th street, were the loudest howl...rs because the wrong done this ...ity by the location of a railroad depot within the ...The latter are of that class of ...about Portland becoming a "rat...g" town on the termination of the O. & C. ...on the other side of the river, and who ...ld rather see up as the especially ordained and ...ointed agents for a west side railroad. We ...ommend each and every one not to rest day nor night to hear about ...ing the vital interests of this city, ...struction here, and property has ...ained at a dead halt, according to the ...ort, good or bad, for a road. Not only ...the people of this city desired a railroad ...ing in full unity with the upper part of the ...ey but it has always been expected by every...dy that it would necessarily ...through some street of the city; and ever since ...survey of the Oregon Central (west side) rail...d it has been understood by everybody that the ...ad would run down Fourth street or near that, and ...ome to the north end of the city. Considering ...t of grade could be absolutely impossible to ...establish a depot at the upper end of the city, ...ad had not surveyed and graded by the old ...ay ascending constantly from the summit ...ing at the rate of eighty feet per ...ile—a luxury a grade as is practicable where ...ops in many short curves—and yet it strikes ...upper end of Fourth street; and there is no ...other way of reaching the level of a ship's ...ept by any practicable street route except to ...ue down Fourth street. This fact has al...ays been known—stood and the general expecta...n has always been that the road when built, ...ould reach the street to the ship landings at ...ortland. Property has been bought and ...sold along that street with that understanding; ...e never heard that anybody bought or ...old a dollar less than they bought or sold ...y for on other streets. When the ...ay was surveyed, and Mr. Holladay agreed ...ith the road, it was the universal under...anding that it would run through the city and ...ommence at the North Portland ferry landing. ...ether or not it shall run down Fourth street is ...the railroad can prevent Mr. Holladay from ...ing Fourth street, they can as easily prevent ...ning Fifth or Sixth or any other street is ...p, and thus render it impossible for him or ...y other man to build a railroad from Port...d to Washington county and thence up the ...ley. We say it—and that the scheme of these ...n is not so much to prevent the construction of ...road on Fourth street as to prevent its con...uction at all, or, if they cannot prevent ..., to force Mr. Holladay to build it ...the shape of enormous black mail. If the ...ople of Portland want a railroad, they must at ...once put down their emphatic condemnation ...upon the efforts of these enemies of the west ...side.

...CIETY OF PORTLAND.—As the ...public is not aware of what the Relief ...iety of this city is doing, or even of the exist...ce of it, we publish by request, a synopsis of ...the last ...eports of the Secretary and ...easurer of the Society, the fourth since its or...anization.

...has been their mission, and ever ready to ...ld of whatever creed or denomination, ...the worthy objects of charity, and in order ...that they be judiciously spent, there is a ...ing from each ward of the city to ...vestigate the merits of each case, so as to de...mine upon the best mode of assistance, whether ...in money, provisions, second hand clothing, or ...a supply of wood.

...has been provided for the sick, medicine ...attendance free, nearly all the physi...ans daily having granted their services ...for three months at a time.

...We have furnished provisions, ...free of the navigation companies, ...the O. R. & N. and the N. P. Transporta...n Co. We are indebted for free passes ...to Salem and extended to them by mem...bers of the Society.

...A great good has been done during ...the year with a small amount of money. ...Many destitute families have applied for help ...and been assisted, and our hearts have been ...gladdened by several handsome dona...tions of them were for $100 each. This ...is our hope, that at no distant day, land ...will be given upon which to erect a Home for ...the aged poor under the care of this So...ciety. Every year such a home is more and more ...needed.

...The Society has now at interest the sum of ...

...during the past year, $262 10. ...Received during the same period, $485 40.

...Any one may become an honorary member by ...the payment of ten dollars. Initiation fee two ...dollars.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

We get the subjoined items from the Advocate:

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. S. Smith, and daughter Annie B., presented church certificates and united with the Taylor street M. E. Church on Sabbath morning last.

The fourth quarterly meeting on Rock Creek Circuit will be held in connection with a camp meeting, to commence on Thursday, June 1st, and to be protracted as long as the interests justify.

The edifices of the Catholics and the Presbyterians at Kalama will be commenced in a short time. The owners of the town site have presented these denominations, as they presented others, good plats for church buildings.

The Sunday school connected with the Zion M. E. Church, on Third street, between B and C, will give another of their entertaining exhibitions on Monday evening next, under the management of the Superintendent, Mr. W. Hunter. Admission only 25 cents. The proceeds will be devoted to the good of the church.

Ex-Gov. Gibbs, writing from St. Louis, after visiting the M. E. Conference, says: The subject of Bishops was discussed in my presence. It appears to be conceded that we are to have six or eight new Bishops elected at the next General Conference. I claimed two for the Pacific coast; no one objected, and I think if eight are elected we can get one from Oregon and one from California. If but one is elected from the Pacific, Oregon is the older Conference and is entitled to the Bishop.

We are requested by the Trustees of the Taylor street Methodist Church to announce for the satisfaction of the public, that all the arrangements for the lectures of this eloquent minister (Rev. Mr. Punshon), that can be made with the present information have been completed. Owing to the break in the telegraphic wire, they are not as yet officially advised whether Mr. Punshon will come direct to Portland from San Francisco, or whether he will go to British Columbia first, and stop here on his return. Just as soon as the Trustees learn definitely in regard to the time, the public shall be advised of it. The price of the tickets to each of the two lectures expected to be given, has been fixed at $1 each for a single seat. Reserved pews will be sold at $1 50 per seat—entire pews only being reserved.

The subjoined items are from the Sentinel:

We are requested to announce that the spiritual retreat of the clergy of the Archdiocese, yearly held in the week following the Sunday in Albis, is postponed until duly advertised.

We are requested to announce that those children, preparing for their first communion will receive instruction in the christian doctrine every Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, and it is desired that every such child should not fail to be present each time.

We are advised that three Sisters, of the Holy Names are on their way hither from Montreal, Canada, a dispatch having been received by Rev. Mother Veronica, Superintendress of St. Mary's Academy, in this city, last Thursday, to the effect that they left San Francisco for Portland the day previous, on the steamship Idaho.

SPECIAL CHURCH NOTICES.—The evening services at the Unitarian church will be omitted tomorrow, the communion service being at 4 o'clock P. M. In the morning the sermon will be appriate to Easter Sunday.

There will be a special service at the Lutheran church to-morrow at 11 o'clock—celebration of the Lord's Supper and services in English. At 3 P. M. there will be divine services in the German language; services in English at half-past seven o'clock P. M.—anniversary sermon, financial statement, etc.

A GENUINE PRIZE COLLAR.—Prize collars are all the go now. Certain manufacturers put a prize of some sort in every box, and occasionally slip in an order for a gold watch. We saw a letter yesterday from Kalama, to L. White & Co., of this city, who deal largely in the "Metropolitan Prize Collar," stating that an order for "a fine gold watch, worth $75," was found a day or two since, by Mr. H. H. Holt, of the Northern Pacific Railroad Co., in a box of Metropolitan Prize Collars, purchased at Kalama. The order will be forwarded through Messrs. L. White & Co., and the watch will be sent through the same hands to the lucky buyer. So it seems there is such a thing as getting a valuable prize with a box of collars. We'll take a couple dozen boxes on the same terms.

QUICK TIME.—The officers of the Fannie Troup claim to have made the best time on record, between Monticello and Portland, on the trip of yesterday morning. The Troup started at half past five o'clock and arrived here at eleven o'clock. She stopped half an hour at Kalama, and made several other landings. Her actual running time, was, therefore, less than five hours. The distance is fifty-five miles, and against the current. The time is good, whether the "quickest on record" or not.

BUSINESS NOTICE.—Messrs Coburn & McCabe, who are well known to the printing fraternity of Oregon, have established a new job printing office in Estes' building, corner Washington and Front street—rooms formerly occupied by A. G. Walling's book bindery—and they are now prepared to do work in every style and with dispatch.

The proprietors of the Kellogg House, Multnomah House, Patton House, Fisk House—up town hotels—advertise a combined reduction in boarding fares. See their advertisement.

RAILROAD SURVEYING EXPEDITION.—Col. Tilton with a corps of surveying engineers started yesterday morning for Wallula, for the purpose of surveying that part of the Northern Pacific railroad line, between that point and Walla Walla.

POCKET MAPS.—Messrs. Russell, Ferry & Woodward are about to publish a pocket map of Portland, and also of East Portland, drawn by Mr. W. F. Brown. These are the first maps of that sort published since McCormick's, and as numerous material changes have since been made to the two plats, they will be useful and convenient.

AMONG A BAD LOT.—A man named McGuire got among the "Rustlers" a day or two since, and came out in an unconscious state, with several slung shot wounds on his head, and minus his money, watch and chain. Who is the next simpleton?

LAGER.—Our compositors acknowledge a keg of lager from E. W. Schlott, proprietor of the Philadelphia Brewery, corner D and North First streets. We are no judge of the article, but we know that the boys went for it and that it didn't last long.

FOREIGN CARGO.—The cargo of the Prince of Wales is all in and the vessel will probably clear to-day. She takes, for Cork for orders, 11,752 sacks wheat, equal to 712 tons, of the value of $30,300. She is loaded exclusively by Allen & Lewis.

USING UP A HORSE.—Capt. Adamson, of the ship Prince of Wales, has got into trouble on account of using up a horse from Acker & Willis' stable. He gave bail for his appearance before Judge Hamilton.

FROM ASTORIA.—The brig Mackenzie is lying at anchor off Fort Stevens waiting for a crew. The Almatia is at Astoria taking on a deck load of lumber.

SALE OF A STEAMER.—We learn that Messrs. Phil. Wyman & Co. have purchased the little steamer Swallow, to be used in their butcher's business.

MESSAGE.—There is a telegraphic dispatch in the office at this city for Thos. C. Duffey.

SPRING STYLES.—KOHN & FISHEL, as usual, are the first to fill their store with the new Spring Styles of Clothing and Furnishing Goods. Their stock is very large, and their goods of the best quality, and latest styles. Messrs. Kohn & Fishel buy their goods in large quantities, consequently get them at low rates and can afford to sell cheap, which they intend to do. They respectfully invite their friends and patrons to give them a call.

HARMOUN'S LIKEN THREAD is nicely put up in boxes, and with special reference to the Retail Trade, so that all numbers may be sold at one price.

SIMSON'S 6 CORD THREAD is unequalled for strength and evenness of thread. Try it and be convinced of its superior qualities.

WHAT ARE YOUR SYMPTOMS?—Mrs. Selina Horton, resident at Fort Lee, was, five months ago, a confirmed hypochondriac. One day she was bewailing her miserable condition to a lady friend in Brooklyn. "What are your symptoms?" said the lady. "Oh, I am sick all over," was the reply; "never free from headache and pains in the back; very weak, and so low spirited that the least thing makes me cry." "Just my own case a year ago, when I commenced using PLANTATION BITTERS," said Mrs. H. "Well!" inquired her friend. "Well; they cured me of every distressing symptom in two weeks, and you'd better follow my example." The lady did so, and with the same happy result.

AMUSEMENTS.

BALL AT VANCOUVER.—Messrs. Brown & Hamilton announce that a ball will be given at Oro Fino Hall, Vancouver, next Wednesday evening.

ORO FINO THEATER.—To-night the thrilling tragedy of "La Tour de Nesle or The Chamber of Death," will be presented for the first time in this city. Mrs. Bates will personate Margarete of Burgundy, and Mr. Bates the character of an adventurer, Capt. Burduin, supported by an excellent cast of the whole company. After the play a musical melange.

MATINEE.—The very laughable comedy of "Paul Pry" will be performed at the 2 o'clock matinee, to-day. Everybody ought to go and see it.

CONCERT.—The concert of Mr. J. H. Stinson at Philharmonic Hall, takes place this evening.

Be Guided by what you Know.

There is an old proverb which says, "Experience is the safest guide." To this guide the sick and ailing naturally turn when casting about for the means of relief. They inquire what a medicine has done for others, before they adopt it themselves. Of all the remedies and preventives in use, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters meets the test most triumphantly, and deservedly commands popularity and vast sales. The sufferer from indigestion is sure to find some one among his friends who has been cured of that ailment by the famous vegetable stomachic. The victim of fever and ague, liver complaint, constipation, nervous prostration or general debility, has only to make inquiry in the neighborhood where he resides in order to discover what this standard restorative has effected in cases similar to his own. In the published testimony to its merits he will find a volume of proofs of its sanitary properties, which it is impossible for the common sense to resist. He tries it, and the effect it produces on his system adds another to the host of witnesses in its favor. Thus, its reputation, founded on facts not assertions, continually grows and spreads. Charlatans and impostors, some of them mere local tricksters, and others who take a somewhat wider range, attempt to thrust into the hands and down the throats of invalids, their haphazard concoctions, as substitutes for the tonic which for so many years has been a medicinal staple throughout the United States, Spanish America, Canada and the West Indies, but only succeed to a very limited extent. In this reasoning age, the people, having ascertained what is really deserving of their confidence, decline "running after strange gods."

A HOUSEHOLD BLESSING.

WHAT WELCOME FROM ENGLAND—A PLEA FOR HIS RULE

[From the London Times March 8]

We are to d that within a few days another political exile will land upon our shores The ratification of the terms of peace has set free the prisoner of Wilhelmshohe — prisoner, though on parole—and the ex-Emperor has, it is said intimated his intentions of joining his wife and son at Chiselhurst The question will at once be raised in what fashion should he be received among us but we have had too large an experience in the reception of potentates whose power has passed away to be embarrassed for a reply The House of Commons will not think it necessary to pass a resolution of sympathy and welcome, nor will the head of the State recognize him officially as one of the brotherhood of European Sovereigns Every organized nation has a right to determine how it shall be governed, and France is a Republic to-day, whatever it was yesterday, and whatever it may be the will of her people that she shall become to-morrow But personal courtesy has rules as clear and binding as those enforced by the comity of nations, and there are many even of those who rejoice most heartily at the promise of a purer constitutional freedom in France who cannot forget the good will her late ruler extended to England and Englishmen Unless he prefers to be known under some other name, he will continue to be spoken of as the Emperor Napoleon, but not as Emperor of the French, just as we are accustomed to speak of King Louis Philippe and Queen Amelie, and as, in earlier days, we spoke of Charles X., and still earlier of Louis le Desire

The Queen will, without doubt, remember that she has been the guest of the exile, and has received him as her guest in the height of his prosperity, and will meet him in the same friendly spirit as she exhibited toward the inhabitants of Claremont and has since manifested toward the Orleans Princes, some allowance being made for the absence of that link of family connection which the Kings of the Belgians have supplied in these precedents The nation at large will cherish no unkindly feeling toward the latest of political refugees, provided Camden place is not made the focus of plots against the Government established by France Napoleon III is for us neither the victim of popular injustice, to be honored and feted, nor a political criminal to be given up, did extradition treaties permit it, to be tried under M Louis Blanc's indictment at the bar of the National Assembly * * * It is from France, above all countries, that the right of S[illegible] has most abundant France [illegible] cano of the Continent, [illegible] The expulsion of dynas[illegible] been more regular than the c[illegible] survius. Ruler has followed ruler at intervals almost as stated in their periods as that of the falling stars that appear every November Nor can we have any assurance that the [illegible] is yet closed

It is too evident already that no one [illegible] a[illegible] present n[illegible] France has refused to tolerate [illegible] Napoleon [illegible] which [illegible] hitherto marked [illegible] Republican as well as the [illegible] Legitimist still continues, and so [illegible] remains unconvicted by wider [illegible], revolution must succeed revolution It is the most painful of truths that no man can bear the presence of a man [illegible] from himself This fatal character of the political education of France [illegible] be remembered in judging the past [illegible] the worst errors of the exile [illegible] now expect Napoleon III, started [illegible] in the belief that the vast majority of [illegible] people were longing to raise him [illegible] and that the happiness of France [illegible] depended on her intrusting him with the [illegible] her destinies Admit the principle [illegible] Bonapartism—that is to say, that the best government a nation can secure lies [illegible] the action of one man to govern it, under [illegible] density of the checks of any Parliamentary system—and the defense of the ex Emperor is almost complete. The principle [illegible] it he shared in common with some of the most advanced thinkers of France, and it is impossible to deny that, for the moment at least, the people preferred his elevation to that of all rivals

France accepted Imperialism with an avidity [illegible] cannot now be seriously questioned, [illegible] making every allowance for the [illegible] influence of the President's authority over the Provincial elections The nation has suffered severely for its fault; but it [illegible] unjust to visit upon the Emperor [illegible] blame of a decadence that had its origin in the vitiated condition of the people. [illegible] public service decayed, Parliamentary activity disappeared, the strength of the army was turned into weakness, but almost up to [illegible] the people were consenting to their own degradation.

American Women

Mr W F Rae, after traveling through the United States in 1870 as a correspondent of the London News, has written a book entitled "Westward by Rail" He thus sets forth the opinions he entertains of American women

From points about which travelers differ it is a pleasure to turn to one about which there has been and must be perfect unanimity The beauty of the women is without the pale of controversy. It cannot be likened to the beauty for which English girls are universally and deservedly admired, for which Italian maidens have been immortalized on canvas or in verse, for which the sprightly damsels of France and the coquettish ladies of Spain have won applause, and by means of which they have won conquests If I were to select a particular locality in the United States, I might truthfully compare the type of beauty predominant there to that of a particular country in the Old World But America is a world in itself Within the bounds of the Republic of the West are all climates which give diversity to Europe, from Rome to Copenhagen and from London to Madrid Where climates vary, female faces vary also In No[illegible] may be seen those delicately [illegible] apparent complexions [illegible] are nar[illegible] the fas[illegible] In the [illegible] indolent [illegible] eyes and [illegible] a dis[illegible] thousand miles [illegible] Andalusia until Let the traveler [illegible] the continent till the Pacific slope is reached, and there the soft and delicate beauty of Italy, combined with an intelligence wholly American, and a physique wholly English, delights and surprises you Nor are good looks the sole dower of the American girls They are more French than English in the acuteness with which they argue They are passionately fond of the frivolities of existence, yet they follow with interest the course of the graver topics of the day On political questions they are ready to take sides and they discuss the issues involved in a controversy with zest and understanding Their patriotism is not a profession, but a passion The intensity of their devotion to their country imparted superhuman vigor to the struggle when the North and South faced each other in battle array The women of the South were the soul of the Confederacy The women of the North saved the Union If the women of America were more kindly disposed toward England, the relations between the two countries at this moment would be more cordial and more secure

HOW THE DARK WAYS OF THE DAVENPORT BROTHERS WERE EXPOSED IN KNOXVILLE, TENN.—Horse's Hall was filled to overflowing At the proper time Mr Fay, one of the performers, advanced to the front of the stage with a paper containing the names of the committee, and requested them to come forward Messrs Bell and Lowery soon made their way through the audience and were greeted with tumultuous applause as they bowed to the audience

While closing the door Mr Bell was struck on the shoulder with some unknown object, but Mr Lowery saw it and instantly went to Mr Bell's side, and whispered to Mr Bell, who began to go through the same motion Out came the object Mr Lowery sprang like a cat and seized the hand, and wrenched it carefully off, throwing it into the audience Upon examination it was found to be a paper masked hand, as thin as writing paper, and cutting so closely in the cabinet that it was impossible to observe it. It was worked by wire perfectly at the will of the operators Cheer upon cheer was given for the committee The brothers were raging with madness, but consent calls from the audience convinced them that they must either play or pay, and accordingly the cabinet was thrown aside and the dark scene was announced.

A table was brought forward and several musical instruments laid upon it, a quantity of phosphorus was rubbed on a guitar, and the lights were extinguished. Presently sweet chords came from the guitar, and the phosphorus was seen running here and there in the air All present were thunderstruck They might catch the cabinet tricks, but the dark scene was a stunner. While the supposed guitar was singing in the air one of the audience named Brooks pulled from under his coat a dark lantern of immense power, which he instantly shot on the flying guitar One of the attaches of the show held a pole on the end of which was nailed a piece of four barrel heading The guitar was lying on the table in the same position, only the phosphorus was not on it To describe the scene that followed would be folly. We don't think the brothers will book this city on their next route —Knoxville Correspondence Chattanooga Times.

SEEING IS BELIEVING.—A notorious scamp was once brought before an Onondaga Justice of the Peace He was accused of having "come the soap game" over a native. The portly Justice, wishing to decide understandingly, asked to see a sample of his skill. The party instantly produced a leather strap, gave a scientific whack across the table and remarked

"You see, Judge, the quarter under the strap?

'What!' interrupted the dignified functionary, 'do you mean to say there is a quarter under there?"

"Sartin" was the reply

"No such thing" said the Justice

"I'll go you a dollor on it," exclaimed the prisoner.

"Agreed!" said the Justice.

With accustomed adroitness, the strap was withdrawn, when, lo! there was a quarter

"Well," said the astonished Shallow, "I should not have believed it if I had not seen it with my own eyes. Here is your dollar, and you are fined $5 for gambling, contrary to the statute in such case made and provided"

The elongated countenance of the gambler required no additional evidence to testify his appreciation of "the sell"

The Fort Wayne (Ind.) Journal tells a history of the war. When the rebel General [illegible] was one of his raids into Missouri, [illegible] the militia of a neighboring State called out by the Governor to protect the border from invasion. A valorous Colonel in charge of the frontier cities ordered his regiment under arms, and without giving the men time to change their clothing and prepare for a long march, he ordered them to the front They marched about twenty-five miles the first day, and the next fifteen Many of the soldiers dropped out of the ranks on the way, and what few arrived at the place of destination were worn out. They complained of the long and tedious marches, and looked over the records, and coming to the conclusion that the march was unprecedented with regard to length and time, charged their Colonel with tyranny and inhumanity, and finally mutinied and started for home, and actually walked the whole distance back, forty miles, in one day

A California paper says it is deeply indebted to a Congressman for a copy of his great speech against the franking privilege, which, as he justly observes, entails an expense of millions of dollars annually upon the people to gratify the vanity or advance the personal interests of garrulous members of Congress "In a private note," adds the journalist, "the honorable Senator informs us that he has franked ten thousand copies of this document to his constituents, and he cannot entertain a doubt that it will be the means of his triumphant re-election He may count upon us, we pledge him our enthusiastic indifference"

INTERESTING TO YOUNG UNMARRIED MEN — The suit of Charles Haines vs M M. Nutting, brought to recover pay for luncheons, horse-bantings, and courting time furnished to defendant, to the amount of ninety dollars, while courting plaintiff's daughter, is still pending in the Supreme Court of Maine Young men are interested in the result of this trial, for if these et ceteras are to be paid for, it puts a new phase upon the delights of a four year's courtship.

In the matter of illegal voting the Canadians are expert. A recent case is equal to anything ever done in this country A man offered to vote, declaring that he was the son-in-law of one of the Inspectors, the Inspector declared his son-in-law had been dead six months, and that the person offering to vote was not the man Witnesses appeared who swore to the identity, and the vote was received.

Bismark enjoys the reputation of saying more witty things, with less effort, than any man in Germany A correspondent says he is as ready as an American, bright as a Frenchman and stinging as a Spaniard in his conceits and epigrams.

William K Davis, believed to be an American, fell or leaped from the top of the Pyramids lately, and broke his neck. His conduct had been so strange for some days that the probability is that he intended to commit suicide

Cheap Water Pipe.

"THE ASPHALTUM PRESSURE PIPE COMPAny," of San Francisco having purchased of the patentees the sole right to manufacture on this coast, are now making gas and ice at their works at Alameda Point that will supply the general want of a cheap and durable water pipe This invention originated in France where these pipes are extensively used, as well as in Germany, in fact, all over Europe almost entirely superseding for all ordinary purposes the use of iron It is no new thing, having been in use twenty years

Its Durability.

Being imperishable and insusible to atmospheric influences or chemical properties of the earth it never changes and is consequently much more durable than iron which corrodes, and in time leaks

It is a Non-Conductor.

And will not freeze except at a remarkably low temperature and even then its expansive power is greater than that of frozen water For this weather it acts as a cooler for water passing through it

Neutrality to Acids and Alkalis.

This pipe is not affected by acids and alkalis nor is it affected by galvanic currents—consequently is invaluable in conducting telegraph wires under ground through tunnels and under bridges

Elasticity.

The elasticity of this pipe prevents its bursting from outward shocks or concussions The interior of the pipes being glazed are as smooth as porcelain, and consequently are never clogged by adhering sediment

Lightness

The gain weight of these pipes to iron is as one to five, which not only facilitates handling, but reduces the cost of transportation

Laying the Pipe

Is a simple matter—can be laid by any laboring man of ordinary intelligence but the Company If required will always furnish a competent person free of expense, to oversee the proper laying of the pipe Contracts taken for any required length of pipe from water or mining companies, and warranted to stand according to contract

Pipe Under Pressure

Can be seen at the office of the Company We are the only parties manufacturing this pipe on the Pacific Coast to date this artitut All other offered is spurious and an infringement

Cheapness.

The cost when laid including connections, is but at one quarter that of lead and one half that of Iron

We manufacture this pipe in lengths of twelve feet, and ship it to every where, by all sorts of conveyances—no special care being required We manufacture it of any size from one to twelve inches

Pressure.

We manufacture according to the pressure required from 1 to 600 pounds to the inch, and guarantee it to stand the pressure

Prices

1 inch	10 cents per foot
2 inch	20	"
3 inch	30	"
4 inch	40	"
6 inch,	50	"
6 inch	60	"
8 inch	$1 00	"
10 inch,	$1 25	"
12 inch	$1 50	"

For pipe capable of resisting a pressure of 250 lbs to the square inch

This pipe being made of a combination of paper, canvas and asphaltum in length of twelve feet should not be confounded with wooden asphaltum pipe in lengths of four feet
